

The Crystal Cup Gertrude Atherton

The story begins with ...

“Old age will be served,” said Mrs. Carteret grimly. “But I suppose you think I am a long time dying.”

This author has written many novels, sometimes controversial as she was strong willed and independent: Gothic and romance novels being the genre of those writings. She is also known well for frequent mentions of California as that was her home state. This fictional book is PD, 50 chapters. - (Summary by April Reynolds)
